

Stanwell Village

Pushchair and wheelchair accessible

Start Point: TW19 7EE

Distance: Short 1.4 miles — — — — — ➔ — — — — —

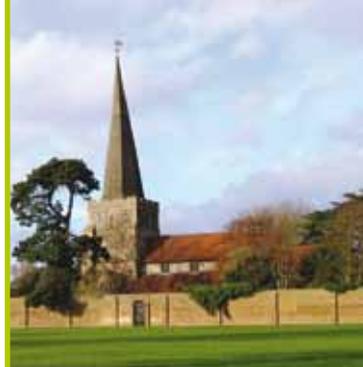

1. Start the walk at the Car Park beside the open space (Village Park), off Hadfield Road, behind St David's parish centre.
2. Come out of car park and walk towards the Church (St Mary the Virgin Stanwell). Walk on footpath then through churchyard.
3. Walk to the junction with the war memorial on the right. Cross road at war memorial and head down Oaks Road.
4. Continue to Stanwell Recreation Ground, the turning is just after Stanwell Gardens on left and Heathrow Cottages B&B on the right (big black gates).
5. Walk through the park and turn right out of the park and through the pedestrian gate.
6. Follow the road ahead (Stanwell Close), bear slightly left until you reach the High Street (opposite Douglas Road) and turn left.
7. Bear left onto Riverside Place and then left onto Riverside Road.
8. Go past the Rising Sun Pub. Take care on the road here as no footpath, but it is a quiet road. Bear left after pub and follow road.
9. Cross Lindsay Close and continue straight on Oaks Road.
10. Right at the end of Oaks Road.
11. Cross the road opposite Stanwell Village Hall.
12. Left down Town Lane. Cross Lord Knyvett Close and look out for St Annes Well on left.
13. Turn left opposite hotel, down footpath in front of houses. Follow Hadfield Road back to the car park.

Distance: Long 2.7 miles — — — — — ➔ — — — — —

14. Follow Town Lane until you reach Staines Reservoir on your right (blue sign). Cross the road and follow the ramp up to the top of the reservoir – be aware that the ramp is fairly steep but has a solid footpath until the top.
15. Enjoy the view before turning back and following the path back down.
16. Turn right down Town Lane and take immediate left down alleyway (between Foxglove Close and Buttercup Square).
17. Follow path and then turn left down Diamedes Avenue and follow road until St Anne's Avenue.
18. At roundabout, take care when crossing roads to take the footpath down St Mary's crescent. Cross over road and follow Hadfield Road back to car park.
